

ABOUT MARRIEDPEOPLE

Hi. We're MarriedPeople. And we're here to help your church help marriages. That's our mission.

We partner with more than three hundred churches across the country and the globe to provide the best marriage resources, training, and community for both churches and married couples.

If you're reading this, that means you're one of those churches. Thanks for partnering with us to make marriages near you better. We couldn't do what we do without your help.

Because we didn't want to give you a bunch of resources without telling you how to use them, here are some awesome other tools we've created to help.

FACEBOOK GROUP

We created a private Facebook group just for our church leaders. If you aren't already a member, be sure to request to join.

There, you can ask questions, get ideas from other churches, or ask questions about anything. Join us: www.marriedpeoplechurches.org/group

MARRIEDPEOPLE BOOK

In 2014, MarriedPeople director, Ted Lowe, teamed up with Doug Fields to write a book on church marriage strategy.

That book is a great introduction to the DNA of MarriedPeople and how your church can use our strategy to impact local marriages.

TRAINING VIDEOS

Starting a new ministry can be tricky. Which is why we're here to help. We shot a bunch of cool videos with Ted Lowe to walk you through the basics.

CHURCH LEADER BLOG

Need even more content on developing as a church leader? That's why we publish weekly blog posts every Thursday just for ministry leaders like you.

Read it: www.marriedpeoplechurches.org/blog

PODCAST

In 2017, we started a podcast to provide couples with marriage advice. This is a great resource to share with couples at your church or to improve your own marriage. We release new episodes every Wednesday.
